Attorney for Plaintiffs and Class Counsel

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF OREGON

JESSICA GESSELE, ASHLEY ORTIZ, NICOLE GESSELE, TRICIA TETRAULT,
and CHRISTINA MAULDIN, both on behalf of themselves individually and, in addition, on behalf of the other similarly situated employees,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

JACK IN THE BOX INC.,

Defendant.

Case No. 3:14-cv-01092-HZ

Declaration of Jon M. Egan in support of Plaintiffs' motion for award of statutory attorney fees, costs, and expenses, Class counsel's motion for award of common-fund attorney fees, costs, and expenses, and Plaintiffs'
motion for service awards

I, Jon M. Egan, do hereby declare and say:

1. I am the attorney for plaintiffs in this action and its previous iterations, US District Court case number 3:10-cv-960-BR, Multnomah County case number 14CV06380, and Ninth Circuit case numbers 15-35262 and 20-80096. I have personal knowledge of all of the facts herein and am competent to testify thereto.

2. The time actually and necessarily expended by myself, paralegal Michèle Lauzier, and co-counsel Jim W. Vogele in connection with this case is detailed in paragraphs 12–17 below. The costs and nontaxable expenses actually and necessarily incurred in connection with this case are detailed in paragraph 11 below.
3. In my opinion, the amount of time incurred in performing the legal services for representing Plaintiffs’ interests in this case was both reasonable and necessary in light of the complexity of issues, tasks performed, and issues addressed.
4. Paralegal Michèle Lauzier’s $275 hourly rate is at or below the going market rate for paralegals of similar background, education, and experience. Ms. Lauzier is a naturalized U.S. Citizen and has a bachelor’s degree in Sociology from York University in Toronto, Canada. Ms. Lauzier has been a paralegal in my firm for the last 18 years, specializing in wage-and-hour law for that entire time, and she is an active member of the Oregon Trial Lawyers Association’s paralegal section. She has been the assigned paralegal on all of the wage-and-hour class and collective actions identified below, and she has attended, viewed, or listened to all of the same CLEs that I have over that span. She is therefore able to provide more value for each of her hours of work in this specialized field. Paralegals with such substantial wage-and-hour experience and training are rare, if not impossible, to find in this market. My hourly rate does not incorporate the cost of billable work performed by non-attorneys. Assigning tasks to Ms. Lauzier allows me to reduce the overall attorney fee bill, as her rate is lower than mine. When there is a task that we both spend time on, however, I bill only the attorney time. Ms. Lauzier accompanies me to all court hearings, yet I bill only the attorney time for those hearings. When Ms. Lauzier performs some specific task in connection with firm work product, she is doing different work than I am. Although the OSB Economic Survey contains no information regarding paralegal billing rates, federal judges in this District have noted that a reasonable hourly rate for a paralegal should not exceed that of a first year associate. Knowledge Learning Corp. v. Nat'l Union Fire Ins. Co. of Pittsburgh, No. 3:10-cv-00188-ST, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 57174, at *16–17, 2011 WL 2133824 (D.Or. Apr. 19, 2011) (reducing requested paralegal hourly rate from $215 and awarding hourly rate of $165 based on paralegal's extensive experience); Nance v. May Trucking Co., No. 3:12-CV-01655-HZ, 2014 WL 6633111, at *4 (D. Or. Nov. 21, 2014). The Oregon State Bar 2022 Economic Survey¹ has the following information for hourly rates of first-year Portland associates: a mean of $310, a median of $300, and a 95th percentile of $538. Adjusted for inflation, those figures today would be $362, $351, and $629, respectively.² Ms. Lauzier's hourly rate is well below each of those figures.

5. My hourly rate is $630 per hour, and I do charge that rate on the rare occasion when I bill clients by the hour. The Oregon State Bar 2022 Economic Survey has the following information for hourly rates of Portland attorneys with 21 to 30 years of practice experience: a median of $450 and a 95th percentile of $697. The 2017 Economic Survey was the last to report a 75th percentile rate, and it was $475.

² Inflation calculated using the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index Inflation Calculator, http://www.bls.gov/data/inflation_calculator.htm. July 2023 is the latest month for which CPI-U figures are available at the time of filing. Through that date, the CPI-U rose a total of 27.4% from January 2016 and 15.4% from January 2021.

Adjusted for inflation through July 2023 (the latest month for which figures are available), those figures today would be median $526, 75th percentile $623, and 95th percentile $815, respectively. My hourly rate is in keeping with those figures. It is a reasonable rate, commensurate with my extensive experience in the specialized field of wage-and-hour class and collective actions.

6. I am the former Head Page of the United States Senate and a graduate of Yale University and the University of Texas School of Law. I am admitted in Oregon state court as well as the United States District Court for the District of Oregon and the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. I am in my 23rd year of practicing law, specializing in Oregon state and federal wage-and-hour litigation for the past 18-plus years, and have extensive experience in this area. I have recovered over $52 Million for my wage-and-hour clients through verdicts, judgments, and settlements. I have served as counsel of record in over 100 reported federal opinions and over 20 appeals, including 10 of them in the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals (one of which I co-argued with the U.S. Solicitor of Labor's office). I have tried four class/collective actions, three of them in this United States District Court, with two resulting in judgments of over one million dollars. I have resolved seven total cases for over $1 million, three over $5 million, and two over $10 million. This case represents the largest wage-and-hour jury verdict in Oregon history ($6.4 million), and I also handled the second-largest wage-and-hour settlement in Oregon history ($18 million).
7. Federal courts have long recognized that I have "unique expertise in the area of wage-and-hour litigation." Wright v. Soniq Servs., Inc., No. 3:17-CV-01990-AC, 2018 WL 4997678, at *3 (D. Or. Aug. 16, 2018), report and recommendation adopted, No. 3:17-CV-01990-AC, 2018 WL 4996574 (D. Or. Oct. 15, 2018). I regularly field wage and hour questions from my colleagues in the Bar, and they refer wage and hour cases to me on a regular basis. I was the author of key portions of 2016 SB 1587, the Wage Theft Bill that successfully passed into law, and I have participated in the drafting of the Oregon Uniform Civil Jury Instructions for wage-and-hour claims. I have been invited to speak and have presented at several CLEs, always on wage-and-hour topics, and have edited pamphlets and provided legal advice and assistance on wage and hour issues to nonprofit organizations such as the Portland Restaurant Workers Association, the Northwest Workers Justice Project, the Oregon Center for Public Policy, and the Oregon Trial Lawyers Association. I also routinely field requests for background information and legal explanation of wage-and-hour topics from members of the media; I and my cases have been featured in articles in the NATIONAL LAW REVIEW, the UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO LAW REVIEW, the YALE JOURNAL ON REGULATION, the Society for Human Resource Management, Forbes, Law360, Lexis Legal News, KATU, KBOO, KOIN, KXL, NPR, OPB, Q13 Fox Seattle, the Associated Press, US News and World Report, the Oregonian, Willamette Week, the Portland Mercury, the Portland Tribune, the Vancouver Columbian, the Salem Statesman Journal, Eater Magazine, Food News, Courthouse News, The Hill, Oregon Business Magazine, California Employment Lawyers Association Bulletin, The NW Labor Press, Westlaw's Labor & Employment Law Daily Wrap Up, topverdict.com, thenationaltriallawyers.org, lexislegalnews.com, Class Actions Reporter, and topclassactions.com, as well as discussed in the Federal Register.

8. I am a member of the national Wage and Hour Clearinghouse (an invitation-only professional association open only to attorneys who exclusively practice wage-and-hour law on behalf of plaintiffs); the Low-Wage Workers Legal Network; the Impact Fund; the Employment Law Section of the Oregon Trial Lawyers Association; the Wage and Hour and Class and Collective Sections of the National Employment Lawyers Association; the Employment and Litigation Sections of the Oregon State Bar Association; and the Rule 23, Class Actions and Derivative Suits, Employment and Labor Relations, and Employment Law Committees of the Litigation Section of the American Bar Association.

9. While working as an associate attorney at the law firm of Bailey Pinney & Associates LLC, I was employed exclusively for wage and hour individual and collective and class action cases, including acting as one of the counsel of record in McElmurry et al. v. US Bank N.A., USDC No. 3:04-cv-00642-HA. Since leaving Bailey Pinney, I have been lead counsel on the following wage and hour collective and class action cases: Cooper v. Thomason et al., USDC No. 3:06-cv-01018-KI; Nielsen v. American Home Mortgage Corp., USDC No. 6:06-cv-01161-AA; Richins v. Jack Fabel et al., MCCC No. 0708-08879; *Jackson v. 10. Attorney Jim W. Vogele was first admitted to the Bar in 1988 and has been practicing for more than 30 years. The Oregon State Bar 2022 Economic Survey has the following information for hourly rates of Portland attorneys with more than 30 years of practice experience: a median of $425 and a 95th percentile of $798. The 2017 Economic Survey was the last to report a 75th percentile rate, and it was $495. Adjusted for inflation through July 2023 (the latest month for which figures are available), those figures today would be median $497, 75th percentile $639, and 95th percentile $933, respectively. Mr. Vogele's rate is right at the inflation-adjusted median rate in the survey. His CV is attached as Exhibit 2.
11. Below are the total costs and expenses reasonably and necessarily incurred in the prosecution of this case, the substantiation of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. Westlaw charges apportioned to each client constitute that client's pro rata share of the firm's actual monthly negotiated rate with Lexis and/or Westlaw, based on the research conducted for each client in a given month. Court filing fees, process service, telephone long-distance, and postage listed are actual amounts charged by those entities and paid by the firm. PACER charges are actual amounts billed by PACER, at $0.10 per page. Here is the summary by category:

Notice of price increase - MercuryPDX will have a scheduled price increase of 5% beginning October 1, 2022. This is a cost of doing business increase, as we see the costs of cargo, liability, work comp insurance all rising this year more than normal, in addition to the continued higher fuel prices. We will also raise the base minimum for orders requiring car or larger to $10.

The Contingent Fee Agreement says:

1. We agree to handle your case.
2. If we handle your case to completion and do not recover any money for you, you do not have to pay us for our services.
3. If we handle your case to completion and recover some money for you, you must pay us for our services. Our fee will be a percentage of what we recover for you. The percentage is set forth in the Contingent Fee Agreement.
4. If we advance money for filing fees, witness fees, doctors' reports, court reporters' services, or other expenses on your behalf, you must repay us whether the case is won or lost.
5. You may cancel the Contingent Fee Agreement by notifying us in writing within 24 hours after you sign it.
6. If you cancel the Agreement within the 24-hour period, you will have no obligation to us.

I have read the foregoing explanation before I signed a Contingent Fee Agreement with Jon M. Egan, PC.

Contingent Fee Agreement

I, Jessica Gessele, hereby retain the law firm of Jon M. Egan, PC ("my attorney") to represent me for the purpose of recovery of damages arising from my employment with Jack In The Box. I hereby give my written consent to sue, and to act as a class and/or collective action representative in the lawsuit. I agree to pay the actual expenses reasonably incurred by my attorney on my behalf. I have deposited $ 0 with my attorney, and I agree to pay an additional amount of $ 0 per month to be credited toward incurred and anticipated expenses. These expenses may include filing fees, service fees, witness fees, court reporter fees, mediation, arbitration or trial fees, photocopying costs (at 25¢ per copy), long distance telephone calls, postage, mileage fees (at 25¢ per mile for state cases and 58.5¢ per mile for federal cases), transportation, meals, lodging and other costs of necessary out-of-town travel, and any other necessary court and/or office costs. I understand that my attorney may require me to pay any accrued costs in my case or replenish my retainer amount at any time. I understand that my attorney will charge 12% simple annual interest on any advanced costs that remain unpaid 30 days after they are billed.

With my consent, my attorney may employ investigators and experts as may be required to prepare, pursue, and litigate my case. All fees and expenses charged by investigators and experts will be paid by me. My attorney is authorized to pay the investigator or experts' fees or expenses, as well as any outstanding medical or other liens on litigation proceeds, from the funds I deposit with my attorney and/or from the proceeds of any settlement or judgment in my case. I authorize my attorney to endorse my name on any check received in full or partial payment of my claim, and to deposit the check in my attorney's IOLTA Attorney Trust Account. I agree to pay my attorney a percentage of all amounts awarded on my behalf (the "gross awarded amount") according to the following schedule:

If I choose to settle my case before an award by an arbitrator or judge, those settlement funds will be distributed in the same proportion as the total attorney fees due to my attorney, compared to the total recovery due to me. For example, if my attorney has accrued $15,000 in attorney fees and I am due $5,000 in damages under the statute (a ratio of 3:1), the total recovery due to both of us is $20,000. If I choose to accept a settlement offer of $12,000, then my attorney will receive $9,000 and I will receive $3,000 (the same ratio of 3:1).

If my case is decided by an arbitrator or a judge, the attorney fees awarded by the arbitrator or judge will be added to the gross award amount, for a "Total". My attorney will have the option of receiving 40% of that Total, or the attorney fees awarded, whichever is more. For example, if a case ended in an award of $5,000 in damages and $1,000 in attorney fees, the "Total" would be $6,000. My attorney would receive $2,400 (40% of the Total), and I would receive $3,600 (60% of the Total). On the other hand, if a case ended in an award of $5,000 in damages and $15,000 in attorney fees, the "Total" would be $20,000. Because the attorney fees awarded exceed 40% of the Total, my attorney would receive the $15,000 in attorney fees and I would receive the entire $5,000 in damages.

I understand that if less than the gross awarded amount is collected, any amounts collected will go first to pay attorney fees, then to case costs, then to pay any outstanding liens, and finally to me. I understand that the hourly rate for attorneys is $325 per hour, that the hourly rate for legal assistants is $150 per hour, and that all billing will be done in minimum increments of two tenths of an hour. I understand that my attorney may raise these rates at any time after providing written notice. I understand that if my case proceeds to completion and no recovery on my behalf is made, I am not liable for attorney fees to my attorney, but will be responsible only for the actual expenses incurred by my attorney.

In the event of my attorney's death, dismemberment, disability, impairment, or incapacity, I agree that another attorney appointed by my attorney can protect my rights and help close my attorney's practice. When my attorney has completed all the legal work necessary for my case, my attorney will close my file and return all of my original documents to me. My attorney will then store my file for 10 years after my case is closed. After that time, my attorney will destroy my file.

My attorney agrees to provide conscientious, competent, and diligent services. I acknowledge that my attorney cannot guarantee and has not guaranteed any particular result. I agree to fully and honestly explain to my attorney all relevant facts and circumstances regarding my case, provide requested information and documents in a timely manner, keep all appointments, return telephone calls and e-mails promptly, appear for deposition(s), attend any court appearances, and make payments as agreed. If I do not meet these obligations and responsibilities, or if I decline a settlement which my attorney recommends that I accept, I understand that my attorney may resign from the representation. In that event, I agree to repay all of my attorney's costs and expenses, as well as a fair and reasonable attorney fee for the work performed.

If I terminate this attorney-client relationship prior to the recovery of any money for my case, I understand that my attorney will be entitled to the reasonable value of the services rendered prior to my cancellation of the agreement. I understand that the reasonable value of those services will be measured either by the hourly rates quoted above or by another reasonable amount agreed to by my attorney, such as a fee-splitting arrangement with a successor attorney.

If a dispute arises under this agreement, we agree to submit any dispute to the Arbitration of Fees dispute procedure of the Oregon State Bar.

I UNDERSTAND THAT I AM ENTITLED TO RESCIND THIS AGREEMENT WITHIN 24 HOURS AFTER SIGNING, UPON WRITTEN NOTICE TO MY ATTORNEY. MY ATTORNEY HAS EXPLAINED THIS RETAINER AGREEMENT TO ME, ANSWERED ANY AND ALL QUESTIONS I HAVE ASKED ABOUT IT, AND OFFERED ME THE OPPORTUNITY TO SEEK REVIEW BY OUTSIDE COUNSEL.

Contingent Fee Agreement

I, Christina Luchau, hereby retain the law firm of Jon M. Egan, PC (“my attorney”) to represent me for the purpose of recovery of damages arising from my employment with Jack In The Box, Inc. I hereby give my written consent to sue, and to act as a class and/or collective action representative in the lawsuit. I agree to pay the actual expenses reasonably incurred by my attorney on my behalf, whether I win or lose my case. I have deposited $ 0 with my attorney, and I agree to pay an additional amount of $ 0 per month to be credited toward incurred and anticipated expenses. These expenses may include filing fees, service fees, witness fees, court reporter fees, mediation, arbitration or trial fees, photocopying costs (at 25¢ per copy), long distance telephone calls, postage, mileage fees (at 25¢ per mile for state cases and 58.5¢ per mile for federal cases), transportation, meals, lodging and other costs of necessary out-of-town travel, all fees charged by investigators and/or experts, and any other necessary court and/or office costs. My attorney is authorized to advance these costs on my behalf, to pay the costs from funds I have deposited as a retainer, to require me to pay the costs directly, to pay the costs from the proceeds of any settlement or judgment, or any combination of the above. I understand that my attorney may require me to pay any accrued costs in my case or replenish my retainer amount at any time. I understand that my attorney will charge 12% simple annual interest on any advanced costs that remain unpaid 30 days after they are billed. I authorize my attorney to endorse my name on any check received in full or partial payment of my claim, and to deposit the check in my attorney’s IOLTA Attorney Trust Account.

I agree to pay my attorney a percentage of all amounts awarded on my behalf (the “gross awarded amount”) according to the following schedule:

If I choose to settle my case before an award by an arbitrator or judge, those settlement funds will be distributed in the same proportion as the total attorney fees due to my attorney, compared to the total recovery due to me. For example, if my attorney has accrued $15,000 in attorney fees and I am due $5,000 in damages under the statute (a ratio of 3:1), the total recovery due to both of us is $20,000. If I choose to accept a settlement offer of $12,000, then my attorney will receive $9,000 and I will receive $3,000 (the same ratio of 3:1).

If my case is decided by an arbitrator or a judge, the attorney fees awarded by the arbitrator or judge will be added to the gross award amount, for a “Total”. My attorney will have the option of receiving 40% of that Total, or the attorney fees awarded, whichever is more. For example, if a case ended in an award of $5,000 in damages and $1,000 in attorney fees, the “Total” would be $6,000. My attorney would receive $2,400 (40% of the Total), and I would receive $3,600 (60% of the Total). On the other hand, if a case ended in an award of $5,000 in damages and $15,000 in attorney fees, the “Total” would be $20,000. Because the attorney fees awarded exceed 40% of the Total, my attorney would receive the $15,000 in attorney fees and I would receive the entire $5,000 in damages.

I understand that if less than the gross awarded amount is collected, any amounts collected will go first to pay attorney fees, then to case costs, then to pay any outstanding liens, and finally to me. I understand that the hourly rate for attorneys is $325 per hour, that the hourly rate for legal assistants is $150 per hour, and that all billing will be done in minimum increments of two tenths of an hour. I understand that my attorney may raise these rates at any time after providing written notice. I understand that if my case proceeds to completion and no recovery on my behalf is made, I am not liable for attorney fees to my attorney, but will be responsible only for the actual case costs and expenses incurred by my attorney.

In the event of my attorney's death, dismemberment, disability, impairment, or incapacity, I agree that another attorney appointed by my attorney can protect my rights and help close my attorney's practice. When my attorney has completed all the legal work necessary for my case, my attorney will close my file and return all of my original documents to me. My attorney will then store my file for 10 years after my case is closed. After that time, my attorney will destroy my file.

My attorney agrees to provide conscientious, competent, and diligent services. I acknowledge that my attorney cannot guarantee and has not guaranteed any particular result. I agree to fully and honestly explain to my attorney all relevant facts and circumstances regarding my case, provide requested information and documents in a timely manner, keep all appointments, return telephone calls and e-mails promptly, appear for deposition(s), attend any court appearances, and make payments as agreed. I understand that my attorney may resign from representing me at any time and for any reason. If my attorney resigns from representing me because I have not met the above-enumerated obligations and responsibilities, or if I decline a settlement which my attorney recommends that I accept, I agree to repay all of my attorney's costs and expenses, as well as a fair and reasonable attorney fee for the work performed.

If I terminate this attorney-client relationship prior to the recovery of any money for my case, I understand that my attorney will be entitled to the reasonable value of the services rendered prior to my cancellation of the agreement. I understand that the reasonable value of those services will be measured either by the hourly rates quoted above or by another reasonable amount agreed to by my attorney, such as a fee-splitting arrangement with a successor attorney.

If a dispute arises under this agreement, we agree to submit any dispute to the Arbitration of Fees dispute procedure of the Oregon State Bar.
